Excellence in Pain Practice Award

LEGAL NOTICE

Pain centers recognized for providing patients with service excellence under the World Institute of Pain Excellence in Pain Practice (EPP) Award program are not recommendations or endorsements of any facility or practitioner for a particular purpose, but are based on specific criteria and inspection of the center's practice. A patient's decision about where to seek medical care should take into consideration factors beyond those reflected in this program, and should be made in consultation with the patient's healthcare provider.
